

TYPES OF SOCIAL WORK

SAASWIPP members can assist with

SAASWIPP is a voluntary professional association of social workers in private practice.

Formed in 1979, we have members in all nine provinces. Our members are experienced, qualified social workers and registered with the South African Council of Social Service Professions (SACSSP).

PERSONAL

- Trauma
- Depression and anxiety
- Eating disorders
- Abuse
- Substance abuse and addiction
- Grief
- HIV/AIDS
- Terminal illness

FAMILY

- Behavioural
- Adoption
- Family counselling
- Divorce
- Domestic violence
- Pregnancy
- Parental guidance
- Support for elderly
- Financial

CAREER/EDUCATIONAL

- ADHD
- Personal development
- Retrenchment
- Retirement
- Unemployment
- Employee assistance
- Employee empowerment

HOW TO REFER

Follow these simple steps to refer someone to a SAASWIPP social worker:

- Visit the SAASWIPP website: www.saaswipp.co.za
- Select Find a social worker
- Type in the service required and the province, E.g. family counselling in Pretoria
- Use the contact details to set up an appointment with the chosen social worker

The South African Association for Social Workers in Private Practice